

PJDC'S 16th Annual ROUNDTABLE

THE KIDS IN THE HALL:

Traumas Our Clients Face In and Out of Detention

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 2019 - 8:30 A.M. to 4:10 P.M.

U.C. Berkeley Law School

Looking for ways to help you demonstrate competence under AB 703 (California Rules of Court, rule 5.664)? Want to be up on the latest developments in California juvenile justice and build your knowledge in specific areas of the law?

Plenary Sessions

- ✓ Legislative Update
- ✓ Case Law Update
- ✓ How Trauma Impacts Our Clients
- ✓ How Secondary Trauma Impacts Us

Workshops

- ✓ Using Foster Care Laws to Keep Youth in Their Communities
- ✓ Juvenile Competence
- ✓ Representing Youth Detained Far From Their Home

PJDC's Annual Roundtable brings together juvenile advocates from around California for a full day of professional education, networking and celebration of our work. The event will offer case law and legislative updates, as well as workshops in critical areas of juvenile law and policy. This year we will focus on the traumas our clients face both inside and outside the juvenile justice system.
